WORDS FROM A NEW VICAR

May I first of all say that we have been delighted with the warm welcome we have received since we moved into the Vicarage. Thanks for all the cards and good wishes. Linda & I look forward to meeting as many of you as possible over the next few weeks and months.

We have not moved far - only from the Parish of Stoneclough on the border between Bury, Bolton & Salford. Prior to that I served for 14 years in the Diocese of Blackburn. My curacy was in Morecambe and then I spent 10 years as a Vicar in two parishes in Preston.

I was born in Fleetwood and grew up in Blackpool, where my parents and sisters still live. That is the reason for my lifelong support for Blackpool Football Club. I also enjoy playing cricket as well as listening to music and reading.

I am perfectly happy being called Dave! Vicar is my title, and it is an honour to be called to serve God in this way. But Dave will do fine and indeed is preferable as we seek not only to be servants of the Saviour but friends also.

We feel privileged to be with you in the benefice and are excited about sharing our Christian pilgrimage together. Please pray for me as I am licensed on 3 July and for my inaugural service the following Sunday. You will all be in my prayers.

Dave Thompson

. . AND THEN A NEW BISHOP

The Prime Minister announced in early June that the next Bishop of Manchester would be the Rt Revd David Walker, currently Bishop of Dudley.

In a reflection written following his appointment he wrote,

"I ask the people of Manchester to hold me in their prayers as I prepare to take up my new role here.

This will be for me a coming home. I am very much of Manchester. This is the diocese where I was born, baptised, brought up and where I went to school. This is where I rebelled against my Christian upbringing in my early teens, and where I found a new and living faith in Jesus Christ shortly before going off to university. I'm not a great one for family trees, but such ancestors as I know of all came from this part of the country. I was raised on the tales of the Peterloo massacre, the Rochdale Pioneers and the Industrial Revolution. I'm not going to pretend that after 30 years away I understand Manchester as well as those who have lived here through that time, but Manchester has always been in my blood and I can guarantee to bring with me a passion to serve its people and its Christian communities, who after all served me throughout my childhood.

His reflection, which sadly is too long to print here in full, moves on to a hope that he will be a Bishop with and for Manchester, and ends,

I know that when I come I will find myself alongside many others who are striving by God's grace to be "of", "with" and "for" your churches, parishes and neighbourhoods. Together we will engage in the tasks that are set before us: to grow God's church, to serve our communities and to determine the patterns of ministry that will best fit us for both those tasks. I'm both thrilled and humbled to have been invited to take up this work with you."

AND CONGRATULATIONS to our new Reader

At a very special service in June, at William Temple Church in Wythenshawe, Darren Dunn was licensed as one of eight new Readers in the diocese. Many friends from the benefice were able to be there to support Darren and his family.

The preacher was Archdeacon David and both Bishop Chris and Bishop Mark were present.

We congratulate Darren on all his hard work over the past three years and thank his family for enabling him to reach his goal and to add to our ministry team here in Walmersley Road. They remain in our prayers.

FOR QUIET MOMENTS

Week One

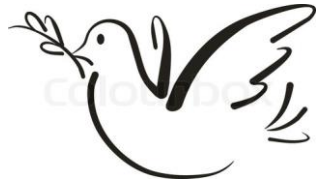

As we begin a new chapter in the life of our Benefice, we pray for Dave as he starts his ministry among us. May he find within this community eager hands to support him, prayerful thoughts to encourage him and willing ears to listen to his word. May he lead us in your path that the good news may be spread and others come to know you.

We ask your blessing on Linda as she supports him in his ministry and ask that their presence amongst us will refresh and renew us to serve joyfully in your name.

We pray for the new Bishop of Manchester, asking that you will bless him and direct him in your ways in love and service. Amen.

Week Two

You have called us to be one,
To live in unity and harmony
And yet we are divided:
Race from race, faith from faith,
rich from poor, old from young,
neighbour from neighbour.....

O Lord by whose cross all enmity is brought to an end, break down the walls that separate us,
tear down the fences of indifference and hatred;
forgive the sins which divide us,
free us from pride and self-seeking,
overcome our fears and prejudices,
give us courage to open ourselves to others;
by the power of your Spirit make us one. Amen

Week Three

We thank you for the gift of Summer; for the recent sunshine, for the abundance of wild flowers, for fruits and vegetables. We thank you too for our holidays, from school or work, for time to be with family and friends, to unwind, reflect, to exercise, to experience new sights or simply sit in quiet.

May we be truly re-created in our recreation, our lives enlarged with new enthusiasm and a broader vision of our purpose. We pray for those for whom a holiday is not possible through illness, finance or work commitments. May they find a time of rest in their daily activities that they may be strengthened and refreshed. Amen

Week Four

The rain came down, the streams rose and the winds blew and beat against the house . Yet it did not fall because it had its foundation on the rock. (Matthew 7:25)

Lord, you are my foundation
Let me not forget this.
When the streams rise
Help me to keep my head above water;
When the wind blows and beats against me
Help me to stand firm.
Keep my feet sure and solid in the knowledge
That you are my Lord and Saviour,
That you are with me always
Even when I am bruised and beaten.
You, Lord, are my rock and my foundation.
Thank you my precious Father. Amen

This prayer was written by Margaret Dutton and read at her funeral by her son, Philip.

In gratitude

Since 2006 Margaret Dutton has provided the content for these two pages almost every month. Although struggling with illness she felt it was a small way in which she could still play a part in witnessing to the Lord Jesus. Margaret died early in June and we give thanks for this important ministry so faithfully carried out.

If you feel that you would like to contribute, regularly or occasionally, suitable prayers for each week, please email wrub@live.co.uk or speak to any of the clergy.

Thank you

When I set off to go to Stan's funeral, I wondered how or where I would find the strength to get through it, but when I walked into church, I knew.

I had not gone to a funeral but, as I wished, to a thanksgiving of Stan's life. So many people have said and written such lovely praises of Stan, he would have been so very humbled, but to me I just feel a comforting sense of pride.

Thank you from Kath

JEAN SMITH

Dear Friends,

My family and I would like to thank all our friends from St John with St Mark Church, and beyond, for supporting Jean and I through the last difficult 12 months. There are simply no words to express my heartfelt thanks for the sympathy and condolences that all of you have extended towards me, not only during Jean's illness but during this time of loss.

Thank you also to those who worked behind the scenes to make Tuesday a wonderful and very special day.

Jean's passing will leave a great void in all our lives. I know we all have our own fond memories of Jean, and it would be wrong to try and single any one out. I think the picture on the service sheet encapsulated everything about Jean. A bit like the Mona Lisa with that enigmatic smile.

I remember how on Tuesday, the sun shone and the colours of the cherry blossom trees along West Drive were at their best and it reminded me of how much joy Jean brought to so many people's lives. Now she is starting a new life of her own.

I can happily say that we did Jean proud and as seen by the number of people in church, she had many friends. She will be greatly missed, but at least she is now free from all the pain and is now resting in peace.

Once again, thank you to you all.

SAINT THOMAS

Dave is to be instituted/inducted/licensed on the Feast of St Thomas - 3 July, so here is a little about the disciple also known as 'the twin' - Didymus.

St. Thomas was a Jew, called to be one of the twelve Apostles. He was a dedicated follower of Christ but somewhat impetuous.

He is best known as 'doubting Thomas' because of his initial response following the Resurrection of Jesus. A week later he was privileged to see the Risen Christ and given the evidence he needed. However, although initially sceptical, he was then the apostle who made an early public profession of his faith, in the words, "My Lord and my God."

Thomas is also mentioned as being present at another Resurrection appearance, when the disciples had a miraculous catch of fish after they obeyed Jesus's instruction to cast their nets on the other side of the boat.

Earlier in the gospel story Jesus wished to visit his sick friend Lazarus and we hear that Thomas encouraged the others to return to Judea with Jesus, despite the hostility with which he was likely to be met. It is Thomas who says, "Let us also go, that we may die with him."

At the Last Supper, when Jesus told his friends that he was going to prepare a place for them, it was Thomas who pleaded that they did not understand, resulting in Jesus's wonderful assurance that he is "the Way, the Truth, and the Life".

Tradition says that Thomas travelled as far as India spreading the Good News.

The highlight of last month was the trip to York Minister for the Commissioning Service for Barbara Taylor as Provincial President of Mothers' Union. A coach-load left Christ Church, Walmersley at a very early hour, in time to beat the traffic and take their places in the Minster. It can be summed up as a 'grand day out' but here are a selection of reflections from those who attended.

The sun was shining and the birds were singing at 7.15 am as I stood on Walmersley Road counting people onto a coach heading for York. Why? you might well ask yourself - my thoughts exactly! Rounding up members of Mothers' Union can be like trying to plait fog but we managed it, arriving in York with time for a coffee.

The atmosphere in the Minster was fantastic. It was especially great to see our branch banner being carried through the Minster by Rosemary and to hear Martin do one of the readings. I and the rest of the Walmersley contingent received communion from Archbishop Sentamu; Nigel was assisting as a roving lay assistant. It would have made my day to receive communion from both of them but never mind.

We had time to wander around the Minster before lunch at the Dean Court Hotel. Then time for a spot of retail therapy in York.

Pam Hoyle

It was a proud moment to see Walmersley MU banner carried by our own Rosemary at the front of the procession. Archbishop John Sentamu was his usual lively self, preaching and leading the Eucharist. He presented Barbara with a box of liquorice Allsorts to remind her that she would be dealing with all sorts of people.

It was a special moment when the Archbishop invited his fellow Bishops to come forward and lay hands on Barbara as she was anointed with Holy Oils. Another memorable moment was to follow when Cath Hilton was affirmed as President for Manchester Diocese.

A very special day, so well organised by Kathryn & Tricia - Thank you.

Don and Claire

I was ambivalent about the purpose of the visit to the Minister but the look of mediaeval splendour created by the architecture in conjunction with the banners and the personality of the Archbishop made the whole experience brilliant

Alan Spencer

Janet and I (accompanied by Janet's John at least some of the time) had a wonderful day in York. It is always special when someone you know reaches what could be described as the heights of their career and to know that Barbara's years of dedication, work and love have been recognised in such a way is truly special.

The service and the Minster were, of course, spectacular even if I could not understand a word that was said thanks to my dodgy hearing and an even dodgier sound system but I still enjoyed it.

But you know I think my favourite part was seeing friends from Christ Church and beyond popping up in unexpected places - including our new vicar!

Elizabeth Binns

Christ Church hosted the Deanery AGM and there was an urgent appeal made for knitted bonnets for babies in ventilators, and sewn baby nests. These items are needed to continue our support for the maternity wards in our local area. Patterns are available. Lynne Longworth has retired as joint Deanery Leader - we thank her for her work and wish her well as she continues her role with the hospital work (and Deanery Secretary).

On July 3rd we welcome Revd Dave Thompson, and his wife Linda, as he is instituted as our new Vicar. Refreshments follow the service which replaces our usual meeting.

July 17th will be our Summer meal at the Lord Raglan (7.00 for 7.30pm) to which we invite friends and family to join us. The meal is £16.50 and numbers and payment are needed by 10th July, please.

Menu

Starters: Homemade Soup, Honeydew Melon with Raspberry Coulis or Traditional Prawn Cocktail

Main course: Roast Sirloin of Beef and Yorkshire Pudding, Poached Salmon with Shrimp and Mushroom Sauce, Chicken Chasseur (in rich red wine sauce) or Vegetable Lasagne

Desserts: Bread and Butter Pudding with Custard or Ice Cream, Apple Crumble with Custard or Ice cream or Fresh Fruit Salad

Coffee or Tea

Do put the Archdeaconry Festival on August 9th in your diaries. Tickets will be on sale shortly, costing £5 including a hot meal and entertainment. This is a lovely opportunity to come and see the variety of Mothers' Union activity and the fun we have together. Bring a friend and have a good evening out.

For those planning a summer get away please remember the Postcard competition. Send (or bring) your postcards back from your travels to Rosemary Taylor and there will be a vote at the Pie and Pea supper in November, when summer seems a long way away! The theme this year is 'Impressive views'.

Simply Impressive™

Kathryn Bailey

Mothers' Union General Meeting 2014 is to be held in Belfast on Saturday, 21 June. Why not put the date in your diary now and join the party attending from Manchester. More details will be available shortly about arrangements for the trip.

I would like to say thank you to everyone who joined us to bite back at hunger this Christian aid week, whether volunteering, collecting, donating, supporting or praying, and so helping Christian aid's vision of ending poverty become a reality.

Many were involved in the street collections and with the lunch we held and we have raised a fantastic £993.00

Thank you
John

Foodbank volunteers

Do you have a bit of spare time to help Porch Boxes - our local foodbank?

Porch Boxes is looking for volunteers to help with food collections at ASDA in Bury & Radcliffe during July and August. This will involve being on hand in the supermarket to receive donations of food and also transporting the donations to the Porch Boxes' stockroom in Radcliffe. The more volunteers there are the shorter the time slots will be!

Porch Boxes is also looking for a volunteer to fill a more ongoing role. It needs an 'Outreach Worker'. This job entails contacting various agencies to make Porch Boxes known and to see if Porch Boxes can help by providing food packs. It sounds like a nice job because it is offering something rather than asking for something! It will mean working from your own home. No fixed hours - you just need to be self-motivated in doing the job of 'selling' Porch Boxes!

If you are interested and feel you would like to help or want to know a bit more about these jobs then please speak to Nigel Silvester.

This is the magazine of the United Benefice of Walmersley Road, which the editorial team hopes reflects the activities and aspirations of the two parishes – St John with St Mark and Christ Church – and the communities of which we are part. In order to do this successfully, and to produce an interesting and informative magazine, we value contributions from everyone. If you are unable to e-mail your contribution please give it to any of the wardens who will ensure it reaches the proper place.

ST JOHN WITH ST MARK OPEN GROUP

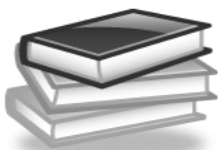

On 12th June, the Open Group welcomed Reverend Elizabeth Binns, who gave an enlightened and interesting talk on "Lord Lieutenant & Lesser Beings" - a curious subject! This was indeed something of a mystery to group members who asked many questions, to learn that there are almost 100 Lord Lieutenants throughout England each representing the Queen in a voluntary sense, carrying out many varied ceremonial roles.

Elizabeth explained her own role as a Deputy Lieutenant to the Lord Lieutenant of Manchester and what it entailed, and gave an historical overview of how this ceremonial position had developed since the mid 16th century to present day.

We lesser mortal beings were then put to the test as to what we had learned by way of a quiz questionnaire with prizes for the winner! We all survived the night to enjoy our cup of tea and depart all the wiser!

On Wednesday 26th June, Mrs Gillian Smith attended our group for a talk about Woodcarving, and a review of this meeting will follow in the August issue of the magazine.

Next Meeting ~ Wednesday 10 July at 7.30pm in the Library

A talk by our very own Ian Banks on the Origins of Nursery Rhymes

Please remember, the Open Group is just that, open to all. We would love you to join us for our meetings.

Allsorts and All Gold

I had been told to expect an amazing day. In typical fashion, I wondered why people should think I may be nervous or stressed. I had planned it, after all! This was not just my day but a celebration for Mothers' Union across all fourteen dioceses of the Northern Province. It was good to know that behind me were many friends from Christ Church and St John with St Mark's but also that numerous others were remembering us in prayer.

In the event, it was joyful, fantastic, uplifting, moving, and very humbling. Archbishop Sentamu, a member too, is so enthusiastic about Mothers' Union and was clearly enjoying the occasion.

In his sermon the Archbishop produced a box of Allsorts, to remind me of the variety of people I will meet across the province! When giving it to me before the blessing he added a box of All Gold - to demonstrate to 'our Lancashire friends' that the parsimony of the Yorkshire people is a fallacy!

But the moment which will stay with me long after my term of office ends was as I knelt before the Archbishop and he invited the bishops present (including Bishop Mark) to lay hands on me as he anointed me. There are very many words I could use but I will stick with that of the Worldwide President - it truly was amazing!

Thank you all for your support.

Barbara

York Provincial President of Mothers' Union

We pray for the Archbishop and Margaret, his wife, as he recovers from an operation on 30 May for an advanced cancer of the prostate. The Archbishop says he derives great comfort from the words of Dietrich Bonhoeffer,

"God, gather and turn my thoughts to you. With you there is light, you do not forget me. With you there is hope and patience. I don't understand your ways, but you know the way for me."

Street Pastors - update

If you would like to know more about the valuable work Street Pastors do on the streets of Bury each week then please have a word with Paul Sanderson.

This story, from one of the team, Mark Wood, appeared in the latest SP newsletter.

"One Friday night we were walking along when a young couple walked towards us. As they approached we heard the woman giving her man a right earful. "I can't leave you alone for a minute, all you want to do is fight, you're going to end up back in prison." As she was speaking another man walked up to them and without warning punched her partner in the face, he fell to the ground with his attacker now on top of him, grabbing hold of his victim and the attacker was banging his head against the pavement.

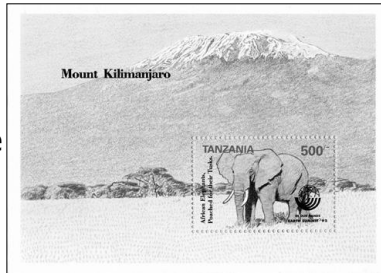

As a team we stepped back paralysed for a moment as events unfolded right in front of us; thinking what can we do. Then as quick as a flash I felt prompted to shout at the top of my voice "In the Name of Jesus stop fighting." To everyone's surprise (including my own) that is exactly what happened. The aggressive man stopped his attack instantly and then made the sign of the cross. This moment of pause gave me time to put my arms around him, telling him to be on his way, at which he ran off, giving the rest of us a chance to help the injured man. Another modern day Samaritan story."

Not everything the Street Pastors do is so dramatic - often it is helping by calling a cab, picking up broken glass so it cannot be used in a fight, and so on. This may not be 'your thing' - but do please pray for those who are giving up their time for this work.

Sponsored climb

This coming August, Addie and Barbara Redmond who have been street pastors since 2010 have booked to attempt to climb Kilimanjaro, in Tanzania. Kilimanjaro is also known as the "roof of Africa" and is the highest free-standing mountain in the world.

Addie and Barbara said 'this is a big challenge for us and so we thought we would use it to try and raise some money for two organisations which we are involved with'.

If you want to give to Street Pastors please make cheques payable to Bury Street Pastors and post your gifts to Manna House, Irwell Street, Bury BL9 0HE. Gifts will be divided up between the Bury and Rochdale teams.

The other project is VSO (<http://www.vso.org.uk>) they have been involved in since 2005 as a teacher trainer scheme in Namibia. Already a Just Giving link (www.justgiving.com/addiebarbara) has been set up for this. Namibia is a diocese linked with the Diocese of Manchester.

Addie and Barbara added 'of course we may not make the summit because of altitude sickness but we will give it our best shot'.

We can all support them in this challenge - financially or prayerfully.

DO YOU KNOW THIS MAN?

He sends his best wishes to all who do, and would encourage anyone visiting the Isle of Man to look him up.

For those who do not know, Daniel Richards was curate of St John with St Mark and he and Rachel lived in what was the vicarage of Christ Church.

The 'snow leopard' was at his first church fair at Braddon where Rachel had discovered a previously unknown talent for face-painting. As you can see, from buying a book earlier in the week, she fully deserved the booking she received for a children's party later in the year.

The island is 'an excellent setting for a future parish visit', suggested Daniel.
