THOUGHT FOR THE MONTH

Doesn't time fly when you are enjoying yourself? This morning I was in the church hall at the Art workshop and two hours disappeared like magic. I have to admit that the end product of my labours will never win a Turner prize or even merit framing and hanging on the wall. But I was amongst friends, having pleasant conversation and doing something which I like. It was very relaxing and all too soon the session was over.

It is very easy to find the time on Monday mornings to join my fellow painters. And I can happily spend (or waste) time on crosswords or Sudoku puzzles. How is it then that I don't have time to face the ironing or clean the windows and have even less time to tackle the oven? My mother always used to say that you can always find time for things that are important to you. I think that is true.

Usually at the beginning of each week I check the calendar to determine my commitments. It is a sad reflection on my age that there are now more slots in the week for hospital appointments, visits to the doctor's surgery or the pharmacy than occasions for "living it up".

For most people life is busy, there often doesn't seem enough hours in the day to accomplish everything that needs to be done. We have to set priorities.

Lent is a good time to consider the way in which we spend our time. What are our priorities?

There are the things which are essential, getting enough sleep, going to work, and making sure everyone is fed.

All of us need social interaction and time spent with family and friends is indeed time well spent. It gives great pleasure and makes for good relationships. The medical fraternity tells us that we should all have half an hour's physical activity every day. which doesn't mean we have to go to the gym – my exercise is a walk round the Lido, which has been noticed. I conducted a funeral last week and afterwards a man came up to me and said "I know who you are!" You are the lady who walks round the Lido. What a claim to fame!

We each need something for the body, for the mind and the spirit. Sometimes the Spiritual takes a second or even third place, a lower priority; something to fit in after everything else has been accomplished. I know that I am only too guilty of that.

But it is important that we step aside from the busy world and take part in quiet contemplation. As Christians it is vital that we take time to be with Jesus not only on Sunday but every day of the week. Jesus himself took time out to talk to his Father in prayer and to discover God's purpose for him. Bible reading and prayer can strengthen our faith, enrich our service and deepen our commitment.

During this Lent can we make more time for Jesus?

Yours in Christ,
Margery

FROM THE VICARAGE

* The whole of March 2015 falls within the season of Lent. Our study groups – at which everyone is welcome - continue at the following times and venues –

Mondays 7.30pm at 14 Springside Road

Tuesdays 7.30pm at 150 Walmersley Road

Thursdays 2.00pm at Christ Church Hall.

At these studies we are looking at the Five Marks of Mission as agreed by the worldwide Anglican Church. These are also the subject of our Sunday sermons during the five weeks before Holy Week. Elsewhere in the magazine a list of the services during Holy Week can be found.

* Please let a member of the Ministry Team know if there is anyone you would like us to pray for amongst the sick, or if someone goes into hospital. But please also inform us if they can be removed from the list or return home.

*Regular attenders to church are encouraged to join our planned giving scheme. If you would like to do so or would like some further information, please speak to one of the wardens.

*A Parent & Toddler group meets in the Church Hall at both Christ Church (9.30 am) & St.John with St.Mark (9.15 am) every Thursday morning during school term times. All are welcome.

* The Ministry Team consisting of all the Clergy, Licensed Readers and our Authorised Lay Minister meet every month – usually on the first Monday evening. If you have an issue that you would like us to discuss, please have a word with me.

* Anyone interested in being confirmed this year please have a word with me.

* This year's performance of Sleeping Beauty by the young people of St.John with St.Mark (and Christ Church) was another outstanding achievement over three nights in February. Once again Debbie Cooper and her fellow workers deserve enormous credit for all their hard work in staging the pantomime. The bar has been set very high to match this for 2016!

* During the final hymn of each Sunday morning service at both churches in the benefice, we encourage contributions towards the copper collection as part of our mission giving. It is an opportunity to use those 1p & 2p coins to spread the good news of Jesus Christ. The children from our Sunday School & Junior Church will be helping with the collections and are also involved in determining which organisations should receive this donation.

*A very big thank you to everyone who helped with the removal of the stage from the hall at Christ Church. What a difference it makes. The room seems much larger and a great deal of rubbish has been disposed of. It was quite strenuous work and we are very grateful to the willing volunteers. Can you help to finish the task by becoming involved in the painting of the church hall?

Report from the PCC

Meeting held at Christ Church on 16th February 2015

An e-mail had been received from the church architect after the February DAC committee meeting regarding the new handrail at the vestry door. We need to resend the application with a new sketch to get approval from the DAC. Work on making the tower roof watertight has started. A new hatch has yet to be fitted. A faculty had been received in January from the DAC for the erection of new ladders in the church tower. This work will be carried out when funds allow.

A certificate from Embrace had been received in thanks for the donation of part of the carol service collection. Embrace provides for children in the Middle East and also produces our Bethlehem carol booklet.

The preliminary financial accounts for 2014 were circulated to all members for review. The accounts are currently with the examiner and will be reviewed at the next PCC meeting in March. The PCC now has an accountant who is willing to carry out the function of bookkeeper for this financial year.

The group responsible for the sale of the field will be holding preliminary meetings with the diocese in March.

Reports were received from the property committee, diocesan synod and the pastoral committee.

Don Altham and the Vicar both gave thanks to the people who had carried out the work on the church hall.

In his remarks, the Vicar covered the points raised during the joint PCC away day at the end of March. In particular the subject of baptism during the morning service or separately was discussed at length as it had been thought that the baptism service being separate was missing the welcome into the church from the congregation. This is to be discussed further.

We have applied for an intern to work in our Benefice from the "Young adult mission support" (ages 18-40) to support the benefice in its work with young adults. We have to see if we are successful in this application.

The meeting of St John w St Mark PCC was after the magazine deadline for this month. See April's magazine. Editor

Make a Mother's Day

Buy a Mothering Sunday gift and help transform a life

By giving a Make a Mother's Day ethical gift this Mothering Sunday you will support the running of Mothers' Union projects that equip people to create better lives for themselves and their families; empowering communities to take control of their situation for themselves and ensuring the work is effective and sustainable.

Mothers' Union doesn't simply give out handouts.

It aims to inspire beneficiaries: teaching them vital skills such as literacy or improved agricultural techniques, and encouraging them to work together as a community to identify their specific needs, support each other to overcome them and build a better life for generations to come. This is done by training nominated people in these communities as facilitators, equipping them to pass on vital skills to others in a way that ensures lasting solutions for that community.

Mothers' Union campaigns for a better life for people who don't have a voice and gives relief to communities that find themselves in serious need due to natural disaster and war.

Now catalogues are available in both churches for individual gifts. You can order by post, online (www.makeamothersday.org) or by phone 020 7222 5533 and if required a card will be sent.

Last year there was the opportunity to contribute towards a benefice donation in recognition of a Mum or special friend. We will repeat this as our joint contributions were able to buy a more expensive gift. Put your gift in an envelope with the name of the loved one on the front and pass to Barbara Silvester (or any MU committee member) and we will print the names in next month's magazine.

FOR QUIET MOMENTS

Week 1

Teach us, good Lord, to serve you as you deserve;
to give and not to count the cost;
to fight and not to heed the wounds;
to toil and not to seek for rest; to labour and not to seek for any reward, save that of knowing that we do your will.

Ignatius of Loyola

Week 2

I found this version of Psalm 23 paraphrased for sailors

The Lord is my pilot, I shall not drift.
He guides me across the dark waters.
He steers me through deep channels.
He keeps my log.
Yea, though I sail 'mid the thunders
and tempest of life,
I shall dread no anger, for He is with me;
His love and His care shelter me.
He prepares a quiet harbour before me.
He anoints the waves with oil
My ship rides calmly.
Surely sunlight and starlight shall guide me on the voyage I take,
And I will rest in heaven's port for ever.

Week 3

God of compassion, whose Son Jesus Christ, the child of Mary, shared the life of a home in Nazareth, and drew the whole human family to himself: strengthen us in our daily living that in joy and in sorrow we may know the power of your presence to bring together and to heal; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen

Dear Jesus,

We thank you for all mothers and carers around the world, and for all they do for their children.

We thank you for their patience when we don't get things right.

We thank you for their encouragement when we find life hard.

We pray that mums would feel really special today and that you would remind us every day to show them as much love and help as they give to us. Amen

Week 4 This is a prayer which the Christ Church pastoral committee used this month. It is appropriate for all Christians.

Loving God, we offer ourselves to you:

Our minds – to imagine the possibilities of your kingdom;

Our eyes – to see the needs of others;

Our ears - to hear the cries of the world;

Our voices – to share your Good News;

Our hands – to work in your service;

Our feet – to walk in the path set before us;

Our hearts – to love you above all things.

It was with sadness that the committee made the decision to cancel our Communion service in mid January. We are loathe to cancel meetings but on this occasion, when we made the decision, the side roads and pavements were treacherous. However it did highlight that our 'Emergency bad weather plan' wasn't totally suitable. So we are renaming our plan to be the 'Cancellation Plan' as a meeting may be cancelled due to other circumstances, not just bad weather.

Should a branch meeting have to be cancelled the following will happen:

- the committee will be consulted and a decision made
- the Distribution team will be contacted and informed
- they will contact the members on their list - who may be asked to spread the word to others in order to communicate the decision quickly.

Spreading the word was what Joyce Herdson did at our February meeting. Having been diagnosed with a life threatening illness, she survived a double lung transplant, and shared with us her story of hope and the faithfulness of God's love and care for her throughout her recovery journey. She was a true inspiration and we continue to hold her in our prayers as she lives her 'renewed' life.

Our meetings in Lent are led by Ian Banks and Paul Sanderson who will guide us in our Lenten reflections.

Mothers Union has produced a Prayer Diary for use throughout Lent. It has practical suggestions, spiritual reflections and prayer ideas. It is downloadable from Mothers Union website

A LENTEN MEDITATION FROM SOUTH AMERICA

*Give up harsh words: use generous ones.
Give up unhappiness: take up gratitude.
Give up anger: take up gentleness and patience.
Give up pessimism: take up hope and optimism.
Give up worrying: take up trust in God.
Give up complaining: value what you have.
Give up stress: take up prayer.
Give up judging others: discover Jesus within them.
Give up sorrow and bitterness: fill your heart with joy.
Give up selfishness: take up compassion for others.
Give up being unforgiving: learn reconciliation.
Give up words: fill yourself with silence and listen to others.*

Having read this meditation recently I found these words both thought provoking and challenging as I was preparing for lent. Hope you find them challenging too.

THE PERFECT CHURCH

If you should find the perfect church
Without one fault or smear,
For goodness sake don't join it
You'd spoil the atmosphere.

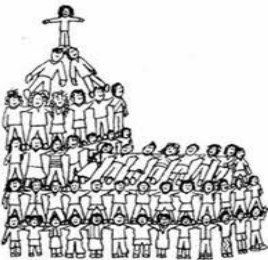

If you should find the perfect church
Where all anxieties cease,
Then pass it by lest joining it,
You spoil the masterpiece.

If you should find the perfect church
Then don't you ever dare
To tread upon such holy ground
You'd be a misfit there.

But since no perfect church exists
Free from fault or sin
Let's cease on looking for that church
And LOVE the church we're in.

Of course it's not the perfect church
That's simple to discern,
But you and I and all of us
Could cause the tide to turn.

What fools we are to flee our past
In that unfruitful search
To find at last, where problems loom
God proudly builds HIS CHURCH.

Would anybody like to draw up another dingbats quiz- perhaps in the Autumn?

CONGRATULATIONS TO ALL

-  We were intrigued by Jonah (in 'the fish') talking on a mobile to God's messenger
 -  We folded paper plates to make a fish
 -  And pipecleaners for Jonah to go in our lollystick fish
 -  Wordsearch, crossword and maze filled any gaps
 -  We learnt a song about Jonah and how he obeyed God
 -  Said some prayers
 -  Ate fish fingers and chips – and a whale cake!

We are sorry if you missed Messy Church in February

but hope you and your family will join us on March 7 at 4 pm

Will we march? Or make lots of noise? Or knock down walls?

No idea! But we will learn how God enables us to achieve the impossible – just as he did with Joshua

We will have fun,
we will sing,
we will have food,
we will get messy –

because that is what Messy Church is all about. See you there?

APPEALS FROM ST JOHN WITH ST MARK

A lot of people are providing money for memorial flowers at St. John with St. Mark now, for which I am very grateful. They aren't however signing the flower rota on the notice board at the back of Church.

The new rota for 2015 will be up very soon. Could I please ask people to sign for the week they wish their memorial flowers? Flower money can be handed to the wardens or myself at any time.

Thank You, Rosemarie Ashworth

My appeal for gift bags is still open, any occasion, any size. I would also like to appeal for tissue paper, any colour. It need not be new but reasonably uncreased, like you get in shoe boxes around the shoes.

Thank You, Rosemarie Ashworth

A small, rectangular white sticky note with a black outline, pinned to the left side of the box with a single black pushpin. The words "THANK YOU" are written on it in a casual, hand-drawn black font.

I would like to thank everyone for all the prayers and good wishes that have been sent my way during my recent stay in hospital. Thank you also for the many lovely cards that I have received.

I am now recovering very slowly at home and look forward to being back with you all soon.

From Phyllis Holt
